Dream Foundation Source Statement

The audacity to dream for mankind

There is no place where our dreams have more power than when we face the reality that our lifetime is limited. This is the place where we are able to find our highest purpose, our greatest satisfaction and our deepest peace.

We are born and we die, yet through the realisation of our boldest dreams we reach out beyond our lifetime to give ourselves to those who live on and to future generations. The lasting presence of our unique contribution to humanity, given in a way that creates concrete, certain and lasting value.

Dream Foundation exists for dreamers to impact the future of humanity

The Dream Foundation is the living system for dreamers, whose dreams would otherwise be lost to mankind. We empower our dreamers to envisage audacious dreams, which, when realised, impact the future of humanity, life and the world.

Dream Foundation creates, nurtures and grows innovation enterprises, global movements, and global projects to fulfil these remarkable dreams. Realisation of the boldest dreams of the human spirit is our dreamers gift to all people.

Please keep this statement in mind when having conversations about Dream Foundation

Greetings from Dream Foundation

Sydney, Australia, October 2016.

Dear Reader,

In our journey in life, the leadership team of Dream Foundation, John Lowe and Jen Burch has arrived at the place of creating, nurturing and growing a not for profit organisation. Our intention is to bring new worthwhile futures to humanity, through empowering people to Dream for mankind, then creating organisations to realise and fulfil those Dreams.

We aim to cause mighty deeds, borne out of truth, beauty and goodness. Importantly, Dream Foundation brings a perspective on life, where people create audacious Dreams that impact the future of humanity, life, and the world, and give themselves to all people, and the future beyond their lifetime.

It is natural for us to not only want to share our journey with you, but to offer you the opportunity to contribute.

That is why we have written, this paper, it is for you.

Please tell us what you got from this paper, and if you wish to take up the opportunity we offer. We would love to speak to you.

With gratitude and appreciation

John Lowe
Champion of Dream Foundation

Jen Burch
Coordinator of Dream Foundation

Dreamers and their Dreams

Dream Foundation provides remarkable opportunity for those who have adverse circumstances in their lives. Where they are impoverished, destitute, suffer or have misfortune which causes them and their families social isolation or alienation, lack of opportunity, and inability to contribute to society - we offer programs that bring self-sufficiency and self-respect to their lives.

After supporting them these ways, our unique and greatest contribution is to empower them to become bold Dreamers, people who create audacious Dreams for the future of humanity, life and the world. Through the exploration of their Dreams, they can find great purpose, satisfaction and peace. Dream Foundation is able to work with some of these Dreamers, and create organisations to realise and fulfil their remarkable Dream so they leave a gift to all people, that lives on beyond their lifetime.

Dream Foundation is seeking expressions of interest from those who seek to take this audacious journey with us, to demonstrate a triumph of the human spirit, where any individual can soar above their circumstances to alter destiny for all of humanity.

Opportunity to contribute to people in your life

Dream Foundation offers to empower and support people who refer individuals in adverse circumstances, who may become Dreamers. If you know somebody who deserves this chance you are welcome to refer them - family members, friends, colleagues or even people you recently met.

You are invited to refer someone to give them the opportunity to have a creation conversation with us. We promise, to do what we can do support them in their circumstance and to leave them with peace of mind, and the opening for them to find previously unimaginable purpose and satisfaction.

If you are interested, before having the conversation please contact us, and we will speak to you to support you to have the referral conversation with the person in your life.

How to empower a conversation for Dreams

If you have someone in mind with whom you wish to have a referral conversation, you will want to cause a safe space. The first step is for you to empower yourself by experiencing your own audacious Dreams. Dream Foundation would be happy to do a call with you facilitate your Dreaming. Then, with the person in your life that you care about, you can contribute the experience that comes when we are in touch with our Dreams.

Please read part one of the source statement of the Dream Foundation to them and ask them what they heard for themselves. If this touches them please read them part two of the Dream Foundation source statement.

If they are inspired you can then tell them that Dream Foundation would love to speak to them to find out about and empower their Dreaming.

You are also welcome to organise and join the call if that is more appropriate. We would love to speak to you and people in your life and empower you to open up the opportunity of finding profound purpose, deep satisfaction and peace, for those in the greatest need.

Our promises to you and Dreamers everywhere

Dream Foundation promise to Dreamers

Dream Foundation promises that all Dreamers we interact with, in each and every conversation, will be treated with respect, and be left with the experience of being empowered, and with peace of mind.

We are willing to explore opportunity for Dream Foundation to create, nurture and grow an organisation dedicated to realising and fulfilling their Dream in the world.

Dream Foundation promise to you as a referrer

Dream Foundation promises to empower and support you to have referral conversations with people in your life to Dream audacious Dreams for mankind.

That those people in your life, experience your care and love for them, and are awakened to the opportunity of Dreaming for mankind, finding purpose, satisfaction and peace.
